

QUEENSLAND
CHILD
PROTECTION
WEEK

Protecting children is

EVERYBODY'S

BUSINESS

CHILD PROTECTION WEEK 2023

Join the Child Protection Week Action Group for a number of activities during CPW 2023!

Trauma Informed Practice & Teaching Assistance Workshop (TIPTA)

Presented by Mel Owen - Transition to Success, Youth Justice

Booking required via: <https://www.trybooking.com/CJURW>

Monday 4 September 9am to 4pm - Impact Community Services

BRYSA Award Event

The Bundaberg Region Youth Scholarship Awards (BRYSA) formally recognise and support youth in the Bundaberg Region who have overcome significant obstacles in pursuit of their personal achievements.

Tuesday 5th September 7 to 8:30am - Multiplex 1 Civic Avenue

'Change the World' by Norville Signing Choir

Join Norville State School in their performance of 'Change the World' specifically created for CPW!

Tuesday 5th September 2.30pm - Norville State School

Mindful Movement

Mindful movement yoga sessions to support children with their physical, emotional and mental health.

Facilitated by Amy Maher, Aspire Yoga Pilates

Tuesday 5th, Wednesday 6th & Friday 8th September - Acorn Childcare Centres

Understanding Emotions

Join us for therapeutic art activity in which children learn about their emotions & coping strategies.

Have fun making Calm Down Sensory Jars. No bookings required.

Wednesday 6th September 2 to 4pm - Alexandra Park Zoo Playground

Dungeons & Dragons

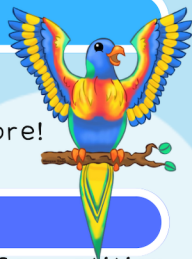

Looking to spark your imagination while having fun with friends? Please register by calling 41304140

Thursday 7th September 3.30pm - Bundaberg Regional Library

Rainbow Day

A morning of activities, stall holders, and information for under 5yrs and their parents promoting local services in the area & encouraging everyone that Protecting Children is Everybody's Business. Facepainting, Sausage sizzle, jumping castle, Gelato, Coffee Van & more!

Friday 8th September 9am to 12pm - PCYC 1 Civic Avenue

CPW Colouring Competition & Art Project

Children aged 0-12yrs can go into the running to win amazing prizes in the CPW Colouring in Competition.

Entries must be received by close of business on Monday 28th August 2023. Entries can be left in specially marked boxes at Bundaberg Child Safety (Claude Wharton Building, 44a Quay Street), BRAG & the Bundaberg Regional Council Community Services Office (across from BRC).

Access via local schools and childcare centres

Talented artists have designed an easy to make Kangaroo that can be put together and decorated by children of all ages. Everything you need to run your own children's "make a Kangaroo" workshop is here to follow at home or in a group.

Access via: <https://communify.org.au/child-protection-week-art-project/>

Annual Child Protection Dinner

To wrap up Child Protection Week, join us for the annual CPW dinner. The evening includes Guest Speaker: Jill White - Manager in the Department of Justice and Attorney-General (Women's Safety and Violence Prevention Division), Entertainment, Raffles, Trivia & more.

Tickets to be purchased via: <https://www.trybooking.com/events/landing/1079610>

Friday 9th September 6:30pm - Rowers on the River